THE ACCOMMODATIONS

Refined Accommodations— Effortless Comfort

At The Northport Hotel, every detail is designed to deliver an experience that blends comfort, sophistication, and seamless service. Our impeccably appointed guest rooms and suites feature refined finishes, modern amenities, and indulgent touches—including heated bathroom floors that add an extra layer of comfort to every stay.

Each guest is welcomed with a chilled bottle of champagne on ice and a curated selection of savory sweets delivered to their room upon check-in—a thoughtful gesture that sets the tone for an elevated and memorable experience from the moment of arrival.

From personalized service to attentive staff, we prioritize both convenience and luxury—ensuring executives and teams feel exceptionally well cared for throughout their stay. Whether hosting a leadership retreat, client event, or corporate offsite, The Northport Hotel provides accommodations that enhance focus, relaxation, and overall experience.

“This is not just a stay—it’s a statement.”

THE CURTO ROOM

A Private Meeting Experience

One Group at a Time

The Northport Hotel offers a single dedicated meeting space for up to 20 guests—designed for privacy, focus, and executive-level conversation. We host one group at a time, ensuring your team has our full attention without distraction or overlap.

Filled with natural light and thoughtfully appointed, the space features flexible configurations, a 65" 4K display, high-speed Wi-Fi, whiteboards, and built-in presentation tools. A dedicated AV attendant each morning ensures seamless execution.

Every detail is elevated: branded welcome signage, customized menus, Northport Hotel-branded meeting materials at each seat, and personalized agendas displayed on in-room Smart TVs. With no food and beverage minimums, valet parking, and curated concierge touches, planning is simple—and the experience feels exclusive.

This is not a conference center. It's a refined, boutique environment built for strategic alignment and meaningful outcomes.

THE RESTAURANT

Elevated Culinary Indulgences

The Restaurant at The Northport Hotel

An exceptional culinary experience is integral to any successful retreat—from productive working lunches to celebratory evening dinners. The Northport Hotel offers thoughtfully curated daytime dining options, including business lunches, plated meals, and hot selections designed to complement meeting agendas without disrupting flow. Whether served in a private meeting space or within the restaurant, our culinary team ensures each meal is both efficient and elevated.

The Northport Hotel's signature restaurant provides a sophisticated setting for executive dinners, team celebrations, and client-facing evenings. Seasonal, chef-driven menus and curated wine selections create a dining experience that feels refined yet inviting—a natural extension of the day's discussions.

For groups looking to expand their evening, the space can accommodate up to 175 guests, offering the flexibility to host larger receptions, seated dinners, or full-venue gatherings. Whether an intimate leadership dinner or a high-impact client event, the restaurant transforms dining into an experience—seamlessly blending hospitality, atmosphere, and connection.

THE LOCATION

Long Island's Gold Coast

A Strategic Escape

Situated along Long Island's distinguished Gold Coast, Northport offers an ideal setting for executive retreats, corporate gatherings, and leadership summits. Known for its historic estates and legacy of refinement, the Gold Coast represents prestige, privacy, and elevated hospitality—qualities that naturally align with high-level business engagements.

Just over an hour from Manhattan and easily accessible from major airports, Northport provides the rare advantage of proximity without distraction. Here, teams can step away from the pace of the city while remaining connected and productive. The village's walkable downtown, waterfront setting, acclaimed dining, and curated experiences create an environment that fosters meaningful conversation, strategic thinking, and relationship building.

For organizations seeking a destination that feels both exclusive and accessible, Northport delivers the sophistication of the Gold Coast with the focus and atmosphere required for impactful corporate retreats.

ALL SEASONS.
One Destination for Corporate Groups.

John W. Engeman Theater

Where Broadway Meets Main Street

Directly across from The Northport Hotel, the renowned John W. Engeman Theater has been bringing the energy and caliber of Broadway to the heart of Northport since 2007. Celebrated for its year-round productions featuring nationally recognized talent and Broadway veterans, the theater has earned a reputation as one of Long Island's premier cultural destinations.

For corporate groups, this proximity creates a seamless transition from productive daytime sessions to unforgettable evening entertainment—no transportation, no logistics, just effortless access. Just steps from the hotel, your team can experience professional, Broadway-quality performances that elevate the overall retreat experience.

It is where business and entertainment naturally converge—delivering an atmosphere that is inspiring, polished, and distinctly Northport.

The Waterfront Advantage

Northport is Not Just Any Waterfront

Just moments from The Northport Hotel, the Northport waterfront offers a dynamic extension of your corporate agenda. With its scenic harbor, marina access, and classic North Shore charm, the waterfront creates opportunities to take meetings beyond the boardroom and onto the water.

Private boat charters can be arranged across a range of vessels—from intimate sailboats to luxury yachts—tailored to your group's size and objectives. Host a sunset strategy session on the Sound, reward your team with a harbor cruise, or plan a memorable excursion across to Connecticut or neighboring North Shore towns for a waterfront lunch.

It's an experience that transforms a traditional offsite into something truly distinctive—where business meets the breeze and perspective expands beyond the shoreline.

Del Vino Vineyards

An Escape to Wine Country, Just Minutes Away

Just 1.5 miles from The Northport Hotel, Del Vino Vineyards offers guests an immersive taste of Long Island's celebrated North Shore wine culture.

As the first vineyard along the North Shore, Del Vino has established itself as a premier destination where craftsmanship, hospitality, and atmosphere come together seamlessly. Guests are invited to enjoy award-winning wines crafted from hand-harvested grapes, thoughtfully cultivated and produced on-site.

Surrounded by sweeping vineyard views, the estate evokes the warmth and romance of a Tuscan villa. Sunlit terraces, elegant stone architecture, and beautifully appointed tasting rooms create a setting that feels both transportive and refined. Whether savoring a curated tasting flight, gathering for a seasonal wine-paired dinner, or enjoying a relaxed afternoon among the vines, every visit offers a sense of escape.

For Northport Hotel guests, Del Vino is more than a nearby attraction—it is an extension of the North Shore experience: sophisticated, scenic, and effortlessly indulgent.

Bring Your Business to the Greens

For corporate groups looking to incorporate recreation into their agenda, Northport offers convenient access to quality golf experiences. Just minutes from The Northport Hotel, Crab Meadow Golf Course features a beautifully maintained 18-hole public course, ideal for relaxed networking rounds, team outings, or informal client entertainment in a scenic North Shore setting.

For those seeking a more iconic challenge, the legendary Bethpage Golf Course is just 17 miles away. Home to multiple major championships and the recent Ryder Cup, Bethpage stands among the most celebrated public golf destinations in the country. The opportunity to play a course of this caliber adds a distinctive and memorable dimension to any executive retreat or corporate gathering.

Whether planning a casual afternoon on the greens or a bucket-list round at one of golf's most recognized venues, Northport offers access to both—seamlessly complementing your stay at The Northport Hotel.

Wellness, Culture and Harbor Energy

For groups that value movement and meaningful downtime, Northport offers an energizing harbor front setting. Scenic waterfront roads and tree-lined neighborhoods provide the ideal backdrop for morning runs or team wellness breaks. Guests can follow a curated route inspired by Northport's renowned Great Cow Harbor 10K—nationally recognized and named by Runner's World as one of the Top 100 races in the country — bringing a celebrated road race experience directly to your stay at The Northport Hotel.

Beyond the pavement, the surrounding North Shore landscape invites exploration. Nearby hiking trails and nature preserves offer space to recharge between sessions, while the historic Vanderbilt Museum and Planetarium—just a short drive away—provides a cultural complement. Set on a former Gold Coast estate overlooking the Long Island Sound, the Vanderbilt blends grand architecture, curated exhibits, and sweeping water views, reflecting the heritage and refinement that define the region.

Whether beginning the day with a harbor front run or incorporating history and culture into your agenda, Northport delivers a balance of performance, perspective, and place—enhancing both productivity and experience.

Effortless Access, Seamless Arrival

Located just over an hour from Manhattan, The Northport Hotel offers the rare advantage of a true destination experience without complicated travel logistics. Perfectly positioned on Long Island's North Shore, the hotel delivers a Gold Coast setting — without the extended travel time to the East End. Guests enjoy the charm, waterfront atmosphere, and elevated experience often associated with farther destinations, while remaining within convenient reach of the city and major airports.

Easily accessible by car, rail, or private transportation, Northport eliminates the friction often associated with offsite planning. The hotel is conveniently located within reach of three major airports—JFK International, LaGuardia, and Long Island MacArthur (ISP)—providing flexible arrival options for regional and national attendees. Coach bus access and local parking are straightforward, and complimentary valet service ensures a polished, stress-free arrival for every guest.

Once onsite, the advantage becomes even clearer. Northport's walkable village layout places dining, entertainment, waterfront activities, and cultural venues just steps from the hotel—reducing the need for additional transportation planning and associated costs.

No ferries. No transfers. No complexity.

Just seamless arrival and an environment designed to keep your agenda—and your attendees—moving smoothly.
